	Page 5
	Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
25X1	Wednesday - 30 April 1975
25/(1
25X1	Talked to Ina Gartin of OMB on
	S. 1289 and asked her if there had been any progress in the Admini-
i	stration's efforts to limit the bill to formal regulatory proceedings. She said that as far as she knew, there had not been and promised
	She said that as far as she knew, there had not seen and property to keep me informed from her end. I asked her who was handling
	S. 1210, Kennedy's FOI Act Amendments, she told me she would have Bill Skidmore get in touch with me. 25X1
25X1	A TIET CONSULTANT WAVE
	called Mack Redwine at the Legislative Counsel's Office at the Department of Justice to determine Justice's position on S. 495, the Watergate Mack Reform Act, which we have been asked to comment on. Redwine said he would be glad to forward Justice's comments to us as soon as they	ĕ
	had been completed.
05144		da
25X1	Ralph Malvick, OMB, called in regard	un to our package to amend CIARDS. He asked if the Agency had made a inflation impact judgment on the legislation in accordance with OMB Circular No. A-107. I told him I was certain that a judgment had been	· .
k	an interpolate and around not have an initiationary impact bear and	5
25X1	. 1 .: Le conntroller He asked that a short statement to the
	as the ited for the record. I subsequently discussed this wash
	o /ctallow and he confirmed they had reviewed the	mna cf
	proposal in accordance with the OMB circular and saw no inflationary in	in pre con
25X1	, in the office of Represe	ntative25X1
	45,	25X1
	£	0
l
25X1	Received a call from Frank Robinson	n,
	to Charles B. Rangel (D., N.Y.), who aske	ī.
	for the address to which a constituent could write regarding his FOI re-	quest.
	I gave him the FOI Coordinator's address.
25X1	Comment of the second principle of the second principle of the second of Annual Services of the Services of	